

Picked Up Here and There.

The proverbial "something old" gown that Miss Elizabeth Cole of St. Paul wore when she became the bride of Dr. Walter Whitman Boardman of San Francisco, Cal., was her mother's wedding costume of soft, shimmering duchess lace.

With deft fingers the up-to-date modiste had transformed the beautiful lines of the bridal gown of more than twenty-five years ago into a modish creation. The skirt and bodice were draped in duchess lace and the bodice was finished with long sleeves of tulle. The court train was of satin. Faintly edged the bridal veil that hung from a cap of lace, the lace extending over the shoulders. She held a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley, runs the interesting story of a gown in the Minneapolis Journal.

An Atlanta belle proved herself an expert this week in "frogging," when she caught six "braces" of the finest, tenderest "frog" imaginable, or as "Omar Ben" was taught to say by "Ringling Peter," in the famous story, "A Night Out," "frags." These particular "frags" were from the "frags" of the otherwise known as the lake at the Capital City Country Club.

"Go for de little ones, bo," was the advice Omar Ben got, and that was the advice followed by the Atlanta belle. She got "little ones," and that was the reason the little frog legs the next morning were such a dainty bit for the family breakfast, says the Atlanta Constitution.

One of the gayest parties of a gay week was the dance given by Arthur Meeker, James Deering and

A Feature of Chicago Convention. McCormick, Jr., Friday evening on board the S. S. Commodore. Here was gathered, says the Tribune, all the out of town notabilities, among whom were the Nicholas Longworths, the Cornelius Vanderbilts, the James Wadsworths, Jr., the Brazilian ambassador and Mme. da Gama, the Larz Andersons, the August Belmonts, Senator and Mrs. Wetmore, the Governor of New York and Mrs. Whitman, the John Hays Hammonds, Mrs. H. O. Havemeyer, Miss Anne Morgan, the Frederick Macmonnies, Mrs. Louis Tiffany, the Adolph H. Crockers, the H. J. Whiggans, the Peter Dunnes, the Chandler A. Andersons, Eugene R. Fair, the Peter Higginsons, and Maj. Henry Higginson—in short, such a galaxy as Chicago has not seen for twenty-three years.

The Marchioness of Exeter, whose noble husband is now in the fighting line with the battery of which he is lieutenant colonel, has just been elected chairman of the county committee of the Sake of Peterborough, which is to organize woman labor on farms, is the word from a foreign correspondent in the Boston Post. The marchioness and her husband have taken a great interest in the practical details of farming ever since their marriage, and the marchioness told a friend recently that she had for some time been engaged in hoeing on three days a week, and also managed to do a little milking.

The marchioness, who is that unusual type, a blonde with black eyes, and extremely good looking, was the Hon. Myra Orde-Powlett, only daughter of Lord and Lady Bolton, and her marriage took place in 1901. The Marquis of Exeter, who, at forty, is just within the military service age, has, in peace time, shown himself much fonder of country life than the gaudies of "town." He is interested in dogs and horses, is a master of harriers and knows a good deal about stock breeding.

Old-fashioned effects were carried out in the floral decorations at the wedding of Miss Marjorie Thayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert F. Clark—Master Herbert and his younger sister Ruth, the former in a white tulle suit, the latter in a modish suit of navy blue chiffon broadcloth, with a large white bow at the waist. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and chiffon and carried a pink Kitten roses.

The bride walked alone. Her gown was exquisite, of white net and duchess lace, with long net veil and wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her going-away gown was a modish suit of navy blue chiffon broadcloth, trimmed with cherry-colored broadcloth, with a large white bow at the waist. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and chiffon and carried a pink Kitten roses.

The marriage of Miss Hattie Meyer of New York and Mr. Alvin Newmyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Newmyer of this city, took place in New York Tuesday at high noon at Sherry's. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Louis Stern of this city, under a bower of pink and white roses, and was witnessed by relatives and friends of the young couple.

The youthful bride looked beautiful in her wedding gown of white chiffon over champagne satin beaded in white, with which she wore a most becoming hat of white satin and a stole of ermine fur. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley, white roses and pink Kitten roses. Her going-away gown was a modish suit of navy blue chiffon broadcloth, trimmed with cherry-colored broadcloth, with a large white bow at the waist. The bride wore a gown of white tulle and chiffon and carried a pink Kitten roses.

The marriage of Miss Hattie Meyer of New York and Mr. Alvin Newmyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Newmyer of this city, took place in New York Tuesday at high noon at Sherry's. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Louis Stern of this city, under a bower of pink and white roses, and was witnessed by relatives and friends of the young couple.

The marriage of Miss Hattie Meyer of New York and Mr. Alvin Newmyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Newmyer of this city, took place in New York Tuesday at high noon at Sherry's. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Louis Stern of this city, under a bower of pink and white roses, and was witnessed by relatives and friends of the young couple.

Weddings of Last Week.

A pretty marriage was solemnized in Chicago on Wednesday last, when Miss Eulalia S. Barger, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. S. Barger of this city, was married to Mr. Edward C. Steagall, Chicago, the Rev. Dr. Young, pastor of the Sacramento M. E. Church, officiating. The bride was attended by Miss Bessie C. Jones of Washington, D. C., as maid of honor, with Mr. James Steagall, a brother of the bridegroom, serving as best man.

The bridal party was entertained at luncheon at Oak Park by Mrs. F. C. Grimm.

After a short wedding journey Mr. and Mrs. Steagall will go to their home in Chicago.

On Tuesday evening, in the Eckington Presbyterian Church, Miss Aurora Rodgers, daughter of Mr. Charles R. Rodgers, was married to Mr. Brower Cox Spransy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride wore white and silver, her gown being made of tulle, lace and silver cloth trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Celestine B. Rodgers, who wore a frock of yellow silk faille combined with touches of lavender and purple. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned one of purple pansies. The church decorations were white and green.

The ushers were Mr. Joseph Spransy, a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. William Warren Spencer and Mr. Bower Cox Spransy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride and groom were best men. After a small reception at the home of the bride Mr. and Mrs. Spransy left for Chicago, where they will make their home.

A very pretty wedding took place Monday morning, June 5, at St. Patrick's Church, when Miss Margaret V. Cadel and Mr. John O. Allen were quietly married. Rev. Father McGuigan performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a very becoming traveling suit of navy blue gabardine, with hat to match, and carried a large bouquet of lilies of the valley and sweet peas.

After the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large company of relatives and close friends, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom, where the couple left on their wedding journey for Newport, returning by way of New York.

A very pretty wedding took place at St. Patrick's Church Tuesday morning at 9:15 o'clock, when Miss Mary Alfreda Hammond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hammond, was married to Mr. John O'Rourke of Dupont, Va. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Smythe. The bride wore a becoming dress of midnight blue and carried a bouquet of white lilies and sweet peas. She was attended by her sister, Miss Mary O'Rourke, who wore a dress of white and silver. The church decorations were white and green.

The ushers were Mr. Joseph Spransy, a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. William Warren Spencer and Mr. Bower Cox Spransy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride and groom were best men. After a small reception at the home of the bride Mr. and Mrs. Spransy left for Chicago, where they will make their home.

On Tuesday evening, in the Eckington Presbyterian Church, Miss Aurora Rodgers, daughter of Mr. Charles R. Rodgers, was married to Mr. Brower Cox Spransy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride wore white and silver, her gown being made of tulle, lace and silver cloth trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Celestine B. Rodgers, who wore a frock of yellow silk faille combined with touches of lavender and purple. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned one of purple pansies. The church decorations were white and green.

The ushers were Mr. Joseph Spransy, a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. William Warren Spencer and Mr. Bower Cox Spransy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride and groom were best men. After a small reception at the home of the bride Mr. and Mrs. Spransy left for Chicago, where they will make their home.

On Tuesday evening, in the Eckington Presbyterian Church, Miss Aurora Rodgers, daughter of Mr. Charles R. Rodgers, was married to Mr. Brower Cox Spransy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride wore white and silver, her gown being made of tulle, lace and silver cloth trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Celestine B. Rodgers, who wore a frock of yellow silk faille combined with touches of lavender and purple. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned one of purple pansies. The church decorations were white and green.

The ushers were Mr. Joseph Spransy, a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. William Warren Spencer and Mr. Bower Cox Spransy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride and groom were best men. After a small reception at the home of the bride Mr. and Mrs. Spransy left for Chicago, where they will make their home.

On Tuesday evening, in the Eckington Presbyterian Church, Miss Aurora Rodgers, daughter of Mr. Charles R. Rodgers, was married to Mr. Brower Cox Spransy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride wore white and silver, her gown being made of tulle, lace and silver cloth trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Celestine B. Rodgers, who wore a frock of yellow silk faille combined with touches of lavender and purple. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned one of purple pansies. The church decorations were white and green.

The ushers were Mr. Joseph Spransy, a brother of the bridegroom; Mr. William Warren Spencer and Mr. Bower Cox Spransy, sons of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride and groom were best men. After a small reception at the home of the bride Mr. and Mrs. Spransy left for Chicago, where they will make their home.

On Tuesday evening, in the Eckington Presbyterian Church, Miss Aurora Rodgers, daughter of Mr. Charles R. Rodgers, was married to Mr. Brower Cox Spransy, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Spransy. The bride wore white and silver, her gown being made of tulle, lace and silver cloth trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

She was attended by her sister, Miss Celestine B. Rodgers, who wore a frock of yellow silk faille combined with touches of lavender and purple. Her bouquet was an old-fashioned one of purple pansies. The church decorations were white and green.

ASSISTS AS HOSTESS.

MISS EMILY JOHNSON, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Edwin S. Johnson of South Dakota, who entertains with her mother.

Items of Interest.

Tuesday afternoon the Mary Desha Chapter, D. A. R., motored to Rock Creek Park for a picnic dinner at the home of the regent, Mrs. Robert W. Morse of Columbia road.

Mrs. George P. Lear of Capitol Hill has gone to Smithville, Ga., on account of the illness of her little nephew.

Mrs. Wilmer Jeannette, formerly Miss Nellie Hemming, of Great Falls, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Hemming, at 118 Maryland avenue northeast.

Violin and piano recital was given Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brownell, 1706 H street northwest. Compositions by Chaminade, Durand, Engelmann, Meacham and others were rendered. Those taking part were Misses M. Brownell, L. Nichols, B. Tydings, T. Brownell, H. Emanuel, L. George, E. Washington, W. Beall, Messrs. J. Hannan, W. George, C. Bruce, C. McCallum, G. Bruce, T. Hopwood, C. Brauner, J. P. Perry and W. G. C.

Mrs. Cahill-Bryan, who recently returned to her home on N street from abroad, while on a mission for the government, was caught in Dublin during the Sinn Fein revolution. Mrs. Bryan is a sister to Mr. John F. Costello, the newly appointed recorder of deeds for the District.

Sorority Entertainment.

The Kappa Beta Pi Legal Sorority gave a dinner Thursday night at the New Ebbitt hotel to the new members of the sorority, which was one of a series of functions given by the sorority to these new members, the first being a tea given recently at the New Willard Hotel by Miss Lydia Hendrickson. These entertainments will be concluded today at Great Falls, Va., when the sorority will be entertained by Miss Lucille Compton and Miss E. L. Halpeny with a luncheon. Those initiated Thursday night were Miss Adele M. Stewart, Miss Mabel E. Hogan, Miss Anna Speich, Miss Evelyn White, Miss Julia Banks, Miss Elizabeth Harris and Miss S. Christine Quick.

Members of the sorority present were Misses R. L. Halpeny, Ethel Lee Lawrence, Gertrude Leonard, Lydia Hendrickson and Lucille Compton, and Mrs. William H. Delaney and Mrs. Sarah T. Andrew.

The Kappa Beta Pi Legal Sorority is the first sorority to be established in Washington by woman members of the bar. The Washington chapter has been recently organized in the Washington College of Law. Miss R. L. Halpeny has been elected a delegate to the annual meeting of the National Sorority to be held in September in Chicago.

Entertainment for Bride-Elect

Miss Katharine T. Frank, who is to be one of this season's brides, was the guest of honor Wednesday evening at a surprise linen shower, given by her sister, Mrs. C. Schroeter, at her home, in pink roses and georgette crepe, and wore a corsage bouquet of white sweet peas.

The maid of honor, Miss Mary Bowers, wore a modish gown of acorillon plaid blue taffeta and a picture hat of black lace and pink roses, carrying pink sweet peas.

Mr. V. G. Austin acted as best man for Mr. Bowers. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bowers left for an extended northern trip. They were in Philadelphia and Boston, stopping at Fall River, Mass., and Newport, R. I. After July 1 they will be at home at 44 New York avenue northwest.

Silver Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Potzler will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary today at their residence, 1202 G street southeast.

A large reception will be held at 8 o'clock, when they will receive their many friends and relations.

Their home will be tastefully decorated with palm ferns, white flowers, and in the large dining room a buffet supper will be served.

The couple will be assisted in receiving by their six children, Mrs. J. F. Weigert, Mrs. C. A. Geibel, Henry, Mrs. Newman, mother of Mrs. Potzler, their house guest, Miss Marie Gaschnitz, who is here for the occasion.

Children's Party.

Mrs. Isador Grosser entertained at a delightful children's party yesterday afternoon at her home on Massachusetts avenue, when she had the children of the Foster Home to enjoy her hospitality in honor of the confirmation of her daughter, Ruth.

Different games were played and each guest was presented with a gift. From an attractive table in the dining room, refreshments were served.

Chevy Chase.

Mrs. John Wilmer Latimer of Newland street was hostess at two tables of bridge at her home the past week.

Senator and Mrs. Key Pittman have leased the Taylor house on Connecticut avenue and East Bradley lane for the next three months and are very pleasantly situated there.

Mr. George Langdon Whitford of Newlands street left the past week for Chicago, Ill., to attend the republican convention.

Mr. L. de Laboulaye, second secretary of the French embassy, and Mme. Laboulaye have leased the Barnard house on Grafton street for the summer.

Mrs. Ralph P. Barnard will leave on the first of the month for a western trip ending at the Pacific Coast. She will be gone most of the summer.

Lieut. and Mrs. Leonard G. Hoffmann of Raymond street, who have been visiting their son, Midshipman Harry Hoffmann, at Annapolis, Md., have returned to their home.

The Chevy Chase Chapter of the Young Women's Christian Association met at Vacation Lodge at Cherrydale, Va., the past week for the last time during the summer.

Mrs. S. R. Norman entertained the members of the executive committee of the Chevy Chase Chapter of the Florence Crittenton Mission at her home the past week.

Mrs. Clarence E. Dawson was hostess at a very beautifully appointed luncheon the past week at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Walsh have returned to their home in Atlantic City, N. J., where they spent the past week.

Mrs. Jennie Brown and Mrs. Burch of Brookville road will be hostesses to the members of the Community Club and the Men's Association of Martin's Addition tomorrow evening, when a very delightful program of music has been arranged.

Mrs. Brown Davis and her daughter, Miss Davis, who have been spending the past week at Atlantic City, N. J., have returned to their home.

River Party.

Miss Olga F. Forsberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave W. Forsberg, entertained a party Thursday evening on board her father's yacht, Cloelia, in honor of Mr. Ricardo Dies and Dr. Carlos Brien, who are leaving shortly for their home in Panama. There was a twenty-mile sail down the Potomac, and supper was served at small tables on the upper deck on the return trip home.

Mrs. Forsberg and Miss Mary Miller chaperoned the party, in which were Miss Margaret Eberle, Miss Kathleen Hull, Miss Mary Hume, Miss Victoria Bopes, Miss Frances Hill, Miss Katharine Donovan, Miss Helen Leighton and her house guest, Miss Gladys Darling, of Montana; Mr. Ricardo Morales, son of the minister of Panama; Mr. P. Arthur Drury, Jr., Mr. John Morales, Mr. Joseph Bafferty, Mr. Peter Moran, Mr. Ricardo Diez and Dr. Carlos Brien.

Twenty-Third Birthday Party.

Mr. Roy Harmon and Mr. Ralph Randall entertained Monday evening in honor of their twenty-third birthdays at the home of Mrs. Ira A. Harmon.

There was dancing during the entire evening.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. George Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baker, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Donaldson, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blundon, Misses Mabel, Edna and Alice Harmon, Irene and Bernice Harmon, Edna Jackson, Lulu Baker, Josephine Escherich and Ethel Deardoff; Mr. C. W. Whitehead; Messrs. Roy Harmon, Ralph Randall, Richard Escherich, Leo Beall, Leo Thomas, William Blundon, John Baker, Carl Harmon, Dick Harris, Karl and George Krozman, Buncle Randall, Philip Hale, Robert Raeburn, Raymond Escherich, Malcolm Brown and Paul Jones.

Fort Myer Notes.

Lieut. Johnson is the latest arrival in the post. He has been assigned to the target range with D Troop.

Mrs. Archer Miller and children, family of Capt. Miller, 2d Cavalry, have arrived from Fort Ethan Allen, and are to occupy the quarters made vacant by Capt. Robert R. Wallach's transfer to Mexico. Mrs. Miller is not a stranger at Fort Myer. As Miss Madeline White she spent her girlhood days in Washington.

Miss Deena Kingman, the little daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Kingman of Engineer Corps, Washington barracks, was given a birthday party on Saturday afternoon, by her grandmother, Mrs. C. G. Mortimer, wife of Capt. C. G. Mortimer, 3d Field Artillery, at her quarters at Fort Myer. All the little tots of the garrison were present. Games were indulged in until all became tired, then delicious refreshments were served.

Col. John Pullman and daughters, Miss Ruth Pullman and Mrs. Charles Kilburn, wife of Lieut. Charles Kilburn, 3d Field Artillery, have come to Newport, R. I., to spend the summer with

Col. Pullman's third daughter, the wife of Lieut. Evans of the navy. The Evans occupy the Carson cottage, at the naval training station, Newport, R. I.

The many friends of Lieut. and Mrs. Bethel Simpson will be glad to learn that Lieut. Simpson has been assigned to the Ordnance Corps. This will mean that they will have a permanent station while Mrs. Simpson is recuperating from her long illness.

"ARE YOU PREPARED?"

To entertain yourself and friends with all the musical talent of today?

If not, purchase a

Premier Talking Machine

Which will give you a perfectly natural reproduction of all records.

For sale exclusively at

The Washington Premier

305 1/2 11th St. N.W.

M. Brooks & Co.
The Woman's Store 1109 G Street

Women's Summer Apparel
Distinctive and Attractive

In a few days these cool days will have passed and summer will be in full force. Be prepared for it. Select your summer apparel while these attractive prices prevail.

New Summer Dresses

Navy Blue Serge, Navy Taffeta and Georgette Crepe Dresses,

$19.95 $25.00 $35.00

Hundreds of Dainty, Thin Summer Dresses, in All Materials and Good Colorings,

$7.50 to $15.00

Largest Showing of Skirts

Taffeta Silk Skirts, Satin Dress Skirts, Serge and Check Skirts, Corduroy and Linen Skirts.

A Special Showing of Wash Skirts..... $1.00 to $3.50

Summer Millinery

—Every style that bears the stamp of fashion's approval is shown in this interesting stock. Prices exceptionally reasonable.

Official Hat

For the Preparedness Parade Can Be Bought Here

Pennsylvania Avenue. Saks & Company Seventh Street.

Sale of Women's Pumps

Models we are closing out!

Short lines left from spring!

Qualities you will easily recognize!

$1.25

It's a medley of shapes and materials—all popular—and because they are popular the sizes are more or less broken. But in the combined collection there is every length and width—so you can readily be fitted if you come early.

Pumps, Oxfords, Colonials,

Strap Sandals—and a few High

Shoes—but only a few.

No exchanges can be made; none returned and no mail nor phone orders accepted—and none sent C. O. D. This is a Clearance Sale!

